Yes.

There are two ways to advertise on movethezero; On the Personal Wall or the Business Wall

Regardless of which category you fall into each Wall has batches of 10 or more pixels which are available to purchase on a first come, first served basis. You then place your advert over the pixels that you've purchased. An example is shown on each Wall.

Please see the FAQ for Personal and Business Walls for more details.
