The Personal Wall is a way for you, as an individual, to show your support for our campaign by placing an advert on movethezero.com. You do this by purchasing pixels (minimum of 10) and submitting an advert for approval. Once approved it is shown on the wall and is there in perpetuity (forever). Each pixel costs €1 and the minimum you can purchase is 10, i.e €10. We will not accept inappropriate adverts and each advert is published at our discretion. We operate a no refund policy on all adverts, whether approved or not, so be advised that you must check your advert before submitting it.
